Moving Pictures

The dramatization of the famous Custer song, "My Old Dutch," was shown at the Orpheus last night to a large and very appreciative audience, and will be shown for the last time tonight. This is indeed a picture of the very highest class, free from murder and other unnecessary crime, which is so often shown on the screen. Albert Oberster and Florence Turner play their parts perfectly in this stirring picture. The comedy "Some Fish" is also a very pleasing picture and a very good illustration of how a fish

Spies on Every Corner in Brussels, is Report

United Press Service
MAASTRICHT, June 12.—Russia at its worst or Constantinople under Abdul Hamid never have been so overrun with spies as Brussels is at the present time.

Everlasting espionage has made life a burden for the Belgians and nowhere in the country are conditions so terrible as in the capital, according to reliable information smuggled across the frontier, despite all the vigilance of the Kaiser's secret agents. The spies are declared to be well paid—but only according to results. They do not draw regular salaries, but get their rewards on the strength of their reports' volume and supposed value.

Consequently, if they have no genuine information to turn in to their superiors it is charged that they manufacture it. To be accused by them means arrest and much difficulty at the best. It is more likely to mean a prolonged imprisonment.

It may mean a firing squad. A reign of terror has resulted. No body feels safe, even in the privacy of his own home. The people live in a constant state of nervous dread. A tap on the shoulder, prison and perhaps, death may come at any instant. In Brussels alone it is declared there are 1,500 spies. How busy they are is proved by the extravagant style in which they live.

Whenever funds run short, fresh victims must be found.

Women are numerous among the secret agents. They may be found all up and down the social scale, from the relative of General von Bissing, who took advantage of her position to keep an eye on the most fashionable functions in the most exclusive residences, down to the humblest seamstress or domestic servant.

There are officers' and professors' wives, who keep watch in middle class circles.

There are the demimondaines, who send in reports from the theaters, restaurants and boulevards.

There are men formerly prominent in business, of which now, practically, there is none, who use their former connections and acquaintance to keep the German authorities posted concerning doings in financial and industrial circles.

Even the most ordinary working man is carefully watched. A case is reported from the Rue de Flandre, in Brussels, where the driver of a brewery wagon and his assistant were arrested because, after they had unloaded a heavy barrel of beer, one of them remarked: "The Kaiser himself could not have done it so neatly."

ORLAND NOTES

The warm weather we are having at present is improving crops rapidly.

Ed Young, with Mrs. Evans, of Longwell valley spent the day Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hunt and family.

Mrs. Shell, Mrs. Kenaston and Mrs. Hunt, called on Mrs. Baehring one day this week.

H. H. Van Valenburg is irrigating his crops at present.

Since the committee of the Farmers League made investigations as to loose wire at Long Lake, we can say that a greater part of the wire has been rolled up, which is appreciated by the stock men of the locality.

Geo. Baldis, James Stansbie and C. G. Hunt made a flying trip to Merrill Thursday of this week.

Geo. M. Griffin, Mrs. Hunt's father, left Wednesday for Sawtelle, Calif. for an extended visit.

Orland Is Out Classed in Game With Klamath Falls

sixth Bowden was hit by a pitched ball, but as he had also been hit in the previous inning in a manner not to the liking of many of the fans, and decidedly not to the liking of the visiting team, there was commotion in grandstand and bleachers in the club, the crowd begging the umpire to send Bowden back to the plate from first. Nelson drove out a triple in the seventh. He scored on Greenwood's sacrifice.

Orland's lone score came in the eighth. Harrison hit a double, stole second, and scored on De Fries' single. With two down in the ninth, Rimard cracked out a beautiful triple, but Hoover, the Stanford player who had just been hit to Greenwood for an easy out.

Hoover was the mainstay of the Stanford pitching staff this season, but he did not go in the box yesterday, playing a few innings in the outfield. It is understood that he will pitch for the Willows team July 5, and come here to get a line on the Klamath aggregation.

Peteron endeavored himself to the fans again yesterday by another emotional spear in right field. The difficult ly to left in the fourth inning made the drive almost a certainty hit, but Peteron hung on, although he spun like a top afterwards to recover his equilibrium. He cracked the ball every time up, but in the sixth, when he was hit by De Fries, and his hot grounder in the eighth, although stopped in a phenomenal manner by Rimard, was nevertheless a hit.

"Big Dick" Nelson drove a decided improvement over his lack of last season and in addition to his triple, he played the initial sack in a manner in his commendation from the most exacting. And Alton, switched over to short, played as though this was his usual position. He covered all kinds of ground, and proved quick and unerring in his throws to the bases.

Here are presented the heels which women wore in the Great New York preparedness parade (upper photo) and those worn in the great political parade June 7 in Chicago (lower photo). The women in the New York parade favored the white kid shoe with a high French heel, the kind now in fashion. They tramped upon hard asphalt for miles, and at the end of the day swore their aching feet did not pain. Chicago paraders, at least most of them, wore pumps of patent leather and high French heels.

Double Tread Tires

Your Junk Tires Made to Run 2,500 to 7,000 Miles More
Our method will save you 50 per cent of your tire cost. We will give you a DOUBLE TREAD tire, made practically puncture proof, and weather proof. Used on 100,000 old junk tires and we will give them into one thoroughly serviceable casing.
The cost is insignificant when compared to mileage, especially in view of the fact that new tires are so scarce. It figures a double tread tire of a cost a mile, whereas the old price of a new tire, if you have several we will be able to give the four wheels of your car. It will have only one we will change the others.
